ALUMNI DAY 2004 APRIL 24, 2004

*Master of Ceremonies
John Dillon Riley, R'64*

Over 250 alumni, guests, and honorees attended our annual Alumni Day held on April 24, 2004 at St. Patrick's Seminary and University. The following classes were honored: Rhet Class of 1939-65 years, Rhet Class of 1954-50 years, Rhet Class of 1964-40 years, College and High School Class of 1969-35 years, and College and High School Class of 1979-25 years.

Rev. John Cloherty, R'54, presided at the Alumni Day Mass, and Rev. Harmon Skillin, R'54, was the Homilist. Former Professors Rev. John H. Olivier, S.S., and Rev. John F. Mattingly, S.S., were our honored guests. The Alumni Board of Governors' Annual Award for great contribution to the faith and for lifetime achievement was presented to the family of Rev. William O'Donnell, R'50, Deceased, and to Lawrence P. Purcell, R'64. The brothers and sister of Bill O'Donnell and Larry Purcell gave moving and powerful remarks.

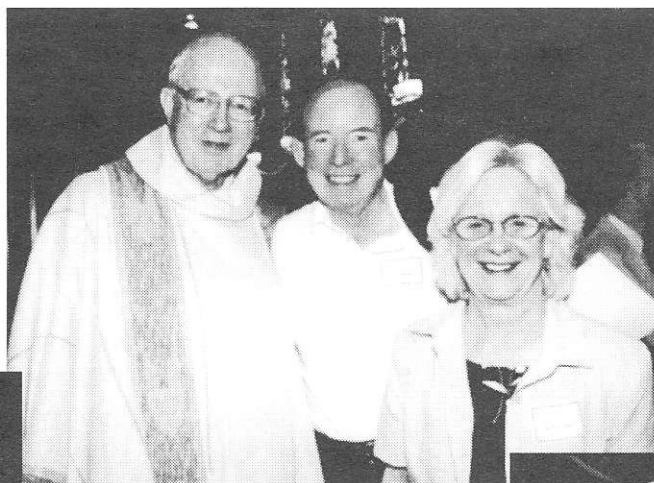

Master of Ceremonies for the evening was John Dillon Riley, R'64. Despite a defective microphone, John Dillon was in 'fine fiddle' and led in crisp fashion. We had thirteen members from the Rhet Class of 1954 and thirty-one from the Rhet Class of 1964.

We encourage all to attend this year's Alumni Day on Saturday, April 30, 2005. As noted in your invitation, we are honoring the Rhet Class of 1955-50 years; Rhet Class of 1965-40 years; College Class of 1970 (including High School Class of 1966) and High School Class of 1970; and College and High School Class of 1980. If you are in any of these classes, please make a special effort to attend and to reconnect with your classmates.

Alumni Day will be your first opportunity to meet our Host, the new President-Rector of St. Patrick's Seminary and University, Rev. Gerald L. Brown, S.S., R'58. Gerry was a great support to the association in its early days (along with Walt Harrington and Don Carroll), and I urge you to join us in welcoming Gerry home (your 'absence' will be noted in Gerry's little black book!!). The seminary provides a warm and gracious setting for our reunion, and Miraglia Catering offers a sumptuous banquet. We look forward to seeing you.

The annual Hawaii trip donated by Walt Harrington, R'50, was won by Dan Collins, R'54. Dan, through Portsmouth Financial, is the donor of the SF Giants Baseball tickets, and Dennis McQuaid, R'57, continues to gift his 49er tickets. Photographs on the following pages were taken by our resident photographer, John Ravnik, R'59.

ALUMNI SCOOPS

Your Alumni Coordinator and his wife, Mary, were dining at Sam's Restaurant in San Francisco on March 30, 2005 when a very familiar face was spotted. In from Hawaii for one day was Bruce Atkinson, R' 52. Bruce was attending a financial seminar and had to return home the next day. He is married to Fay, and they have one child, Jimmy. Bruce is the First Vice President of Wachovia Securities in Honolulu. Bruce sends regards to all former students. TV Trivia: in the series Magnum P.I. Bruce was the profile for Robin Masters; the voice for Robin was Orson Welles. Bruce was paid $50.00; Orson received $50,000.00!!.

Dudley Conneely, R'64, continues his humanitarian work. He has left Darfur and is now in Kuwait as Field Office Director and Chief of all humanitarian programs in Iraq for Save the Children. He will travel to Basra when security permits. One of every 4 children (before the age of 5) dies in southern Iraq from malnutrition or water born diseases. The nutritional condition of children in Basra is much worse than the children in the Refugee camps in Darfur. His words to us "Maryknoll, always and forever Maryknoll. Thanks to all of you for the example".

Send any 'Scoops' to James P. Murphy- your contact person!

GROUP DISCUSSION ON ALUMNI DAY

Ken Kelzer and Arnie Kunst will be leading a discussion group on THE CHURCH AND THE MODERN WORLD; CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES. The discussion will take place from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. in one of the classrooms on the Philosophy side of the building. This will be an informal discussion held to share personal concerns and reflections about any major issues facing the Church today.

This gathering is a continuation of a similar meeting held last year. We see this gathering as an opportunity to dialogue with each other about our shared histories in the seminary community and our visions for what the Church can be. All are welcome to attend and spouses are especially encouraged and invited to attend.
